1. The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) as $\epsilon \rightarrow 0$. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) converge to the solutions of the system (2) in the sense of the weak convergence in the space $L^2(\Omega; \mathbb{R}^n)$.

Handwritten marginal note in the top right corner.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Arabic, consisting of approximately 10 lines. The text is written in dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is fluid and characteristic of historical Islamic manuscripts. The lines are roughly horizontal but show some variation in alignment due to the cursive style.

Handwritten marginal note on the left side, possibly a page number or a reference.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines appearing more prominent than others. There are several large, stylized characters or symbols interspersed within the text, which may represent specific words or serve as decorative elements. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged piece of historical writing.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. It consists of several lines of text, with some lines starting with decorative flourishes or initials. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of historical cursive handwriting. There are some small, dark spots or stains on the paper, particularly in the middle section. The overall appearance is that of an old, possibly legal or administrative, document.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Urdu, covering the entire page. The text is written in dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. There are several lines of text, with some words appearing to be underlined or written in a slightly larger, bolder script. The overall appearance is that of a historical manuscript or a personal letter.

Main body of handwritten text in a cursive script, spanning the width of the page. The text is arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines. The script is dense and characteristic of historical documents. There are two distinct dark circular marks on the page, one near the center and one towards the right side, which appear to be punch holes or ink stains.

1850

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines showing signs of fading or wear. The text appears to be a continuous narrative or record, possibly related to a legal or administrative matter, given the formal nature of the handwriting and the presence of some larger, more prominent characters that might serve as section markers or headings. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged historical document.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Urdu, covering the entire page. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowish paper. The script is dense and flowing, with many small, connected characters. There are two prominent dark circular marks, possibly holes or ink blots, located near the center of the page. The text appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a letter or a manuscript entry.
